Summary – Revelation 7:16 tells us that the great multitude that came out of the Great Tribulation will be raptured before God pours out the 4th Bowl judgment of scorching heat. Isaiah 24:6 tells us that the few men going into the Millennium with Jesus will have been scorched with God's 4th Bowl judgment. This means that all non-believers left on the earth after the Rapture, will be scorched, both Jew and Gentile. When Jesus returns, 30 days after the Rapture, those going into the Millennium with him will be 1/3rd of the Israelites alive when Jesus stops the Battle of Armageddon and those outside of Israel that did not take the mark of the beast.

There will not be enough inhabitants left in the world to bury those that had taken the mark of the beast except in Israel. There will be over two million Israelites left in Israel after Jesus returns, and it will take them seven months to bury the dead there per Ezekiel 39:12.
